Day 1 - Bay of Fires

Day 1 Sunday 28th September

D

An early start as we travel down the M1 freeway to Sydney airport for our flight to Launceston where our coach will be waiting. From Launceston Airport we travel to Legerwood where we will pause for morning tea and view the magnificent Carved Memorial Trees. We continue through old Tin mining towns Branxholm and Derby arriving in St Helens, home of the famous Bay of Fires, recently voted Australia's best beaches. The Bay's iconic name comes from Captain Tobias Furneaux as he sailed past in 1773, spotting Aboriginal fires lighting up the coastline. Evidence of these first Tasmanian inhabitants in the form of shell and bone piles are dotted in and among the grass. The name could also apply to the brilliant orange lichen that grows on the granite boulders lining the bay.
