Te Anau Wharf

Day 14 8th November

Queenstown to Te Anau

This is one of the days you want to have your camera charged, and ready to go! Leaving Queenstown you will journey through the Fiordland National Park and out to Milford Sound on one of the most scenic roads you could hope for. Travel through native rainforests, beach forest, alluvial flats and meadows. You will stop at Mirror Lakes where, as the name suggest, you can see the stunning mountain scenery perfectly reflected in the waters in the lake. Then on to the Homer Tunnel where man's attempt to master the sheer rocky ranges still left rough-hewn around the edges. As you emerge out of the other side of the tunnel, you are presented with one of the world's most dramatic alpine drives, down through the Cleddau River has carved its way through solid rock, and then it's on to Milford Sound, where you will cruise the waters of this natural wonder. Your cruise will meander down the Sound, taking in the Bowen and Stirling Falls as these plummet from glacial hanging valleys sharply into the sea, and the sheer pinnacle of mitre peak, rising from the deep waters of the fiord.

Overnight Distinction Luxford Te Anau

Day 15 9th November

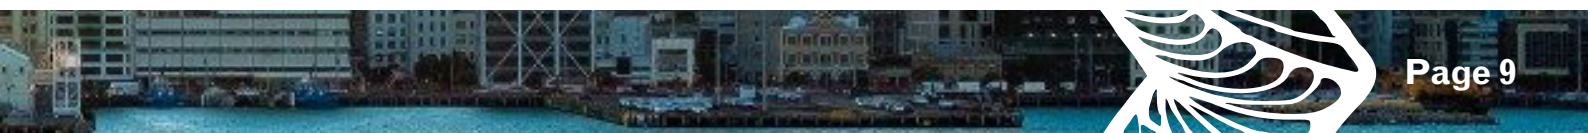

BD

Te Anau to Dunedin

This morning travel through lush green pastures, crossing sheep filled farmland. New Zealand is internationally known for its sheep farming and these are sights many visitors to this country recognise as typically New Zealand. You are sure to find the perfect sheep photo here. As your journey continues, the rolling hills, grassy hills once again turn back into heavily forested, rugged mountains, and you meander your way to Dunedin New Zealand's southernmost city. Arriving at Larnach Castle (New Zealand's only Castle) after lunch enjoy a guided tour of the Castle and Gardens, tonight we experience a traditional Haggis ceremony before dinner.

Overnight Mercure Leisure Inn
