This morning, we leave the hustle and bustle of the Gold Coast and travel to Mt Tamborine in the Gold Cost Hinterland. Our first stop is the Tamborine Rainforest Skywalk, this exciting new Eco-Adventure offers guests a unique and thrilling way to explore the beautiful rainforest canopies. Set in a magical 30 acres of privately owned rainforest beside the crystal-clear rock-pools of Cedar Creek on Mt Tamborine. The walk departs directly from the Eco gallery with a comprehensive array of Australian rainforest fauna displays. After lunch, we are treated to a fully guided tour of Cedar Creek Glo Worms Cave. The purpose-built cave is complete with realistic formations such as Stalagmites and stalactites, you'll be shown a brief documentary on the Glo Worms. After the film your guide will lead you into the Cave filled with thousands of shining Glo Worms. The cave is easy to access and doesn't require any bending down or crawling through tight spaces.
